ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

---

Dear colleagues,

AFICEP, the French Association of Rubber and Polymers Engineers will organize the future RubberCon 2020 in Paris.

But what is a RubberCon?

The RubberCon is an international event that takes place alternately in Europe, Asia and America. It is organized under the auspices of IRCO, the International Rubber Conference Organization of which AFICEP is a member. During two days of conferences (with several sessions in parallel), it deals with specific themes dedicated to the elastomer industry.

The AFICEP has obtained the organization of the future RubberCon 2020 that will take place on 4 and 5 June 2020 in PARIS on the theme "Environment and Recycling: A Strategic Challenge for Rubber Materials"

Several topics of importance for our profession will be addressed:

- Sustainable Materials
- Properties & environmental Impact Performances
- Processing
- Applications & Use
- End of Life of Rubbers
- Health and Safety

We hope that all the participants will find satisfaction and have a pleasant time in Paris.
